

Rufus King park spruced up

Area residents cleaned up Rufus King Park in Jamaica last Saturday under the auspices of the Friends of Rufus King Park, the Greater Jamaica Development Corporation, and the Partnership for Parks. They also found time for some fun and games — and a tasty pizza luncheon.

At the top, Jessica Chambliss, left, Marguerite Barrett, Jewel Grant, Evelyn

Bullock and Darlene Henderson of Gotham Chapter of the Top Ladies of Distinction take a break from fence painting.

In the center, artist Okechukwu "Oke" Ofiaeli shows off a sculpture he created with locally harvested sycamore branches. Its theme is the Underground Railroad.

Above, Grant breaks out the pizza for all the hungry volunteers.